Opening Date Set for Garden Valley Child Center

Starting date of Nov. 1 has been set by the board of trustees of the Garden Valley Center for mentally retarded children.

Recently the board met at the home of Mrs. Max Stern and the incorporation papers were signed.

At a meeting at the Community Hall last week, the center was presented with two American flags. A large one was donated by Sergeant Edwards of the US Airforce. A smaller for the classroom was given by Sam Krongberg who represented the F.W. and Mrs. Tony Inman, president of the VFW and Mrs. Tony Inman, president of the VFW auxiliary.

A check for $500 was presented to the center by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and indoor toys for the child center were presented by the Gardena Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. G. A. Jacobson, philanthropy chairman for the Torrance club made the money presentation and Mrs. Ronald Owen, mental health chairman and Mrs. Anthony Ricera, co-chairman presented the toys.

An urgent request for volunteer help has been sent out by Mrs. Max Stern, vice president of the Garden Valley Center board.

"If workers can come for only 3 hours a day or several hours a week, it would help our need," stated Mrs. Stern.

The classes will be held from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the temporary building, 14725 Gramercy. Larry Neece will be the instructor.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Jean Bower, DA 4-5852.
